What's Inside

OPEN IT, PRINT IT, RUN IT

- ◆ Two complete programs — twelve activities for ages 6-9 and eleven for ages 3-5, each written out in full. Every activity runs about 15 minutes.
- ◆ Nine printables bound into the guide — 22 ready-to-print pages in program order, including the Story of Yonah, the Yom Kippur board game, the matching game, and the puzzles.
- ◆ A master prep checklist and a shopping list with direct links, matched item by item to the activity that needs them.

A TASTE · AGES 6-9

Two Games, Exactly as They Appear

1 Wink — Forgiveness Person vs. Yetzer Hara

PREP AHEAD

PRINTABLE

A Yom Kippur version of the classic wink game. Everyone gets a card; most are blank, one says Forgiveness Person and one says Yetzer Hara. The Forgiveness Person wants to be forgiven by everyone except the Yetzer Hara, so they secretly wink at players one at a time. When someone is winked at, they say "Forgiven!" — but if the Yetzer Hara gets winked at, they call out "Yetzer Hara!" and the Forgiveness Person is out. Redistribute the cards and start a new round.

The Forgiveness game cards are included at the back of the full guide.

2 Midnight in the Malachim Museum

On Yom Kippur we are like Malachim — that is why we don't eat or drink, and why we can stand still for many hours. Everyone is a Malach and has to remain perfectly still. One child is "it" and tries to catch people moving; while their back is turned, the Malachim try to quickly switch into new positions without being caught.

Plus twenty-one more: the Taboo Mystery Box, the Yom Kippur scavenger hunt, Jump to the Malachim, the Story of Yonah acted out with a shisel and a toy whale, the board game, the matching game, the puzzles, and the Baal Shem Tov's Kol Nidrei story.
